

4-2-8 Assessment: Pressure to Obey

Name _____

Date _____

Children can write in answers, draw their answers, or talk through their responses with an adult.

1. Which of the following are reasons why we sometimes obey authority when we should not, and as a result, fail to act to help others?
  - a) We let ourselves become lost in a group.
  - b) We look to an authority figure to act assuming they are more capable than we are.
  - c) We blame the victim involved.
  - d) All of the above.
2. It's possible for the pressure to obey to have positive effects.
  - a) True
  - b) False
3. Name (or describe) two ways you can prepare yourself to question authority.
4. Draw or describe a scenario where an authority figure is pressuring someone less powerful to obey. For example, you might draw the scene in Aladdin where Jafar orders the palace guards to acknowledge him as the new sultan.
